Passes orders about the increased supply of clothing to convicts under sentence of rigorous imprisonment and transportation.

READ—

Rules 340-45 of the Mysore Jail Manual, prescribing the clothing for Indian male and female convicts under sentence of rigorous imprisonment or transportation.

2. Letter No. 1137-1, dated 5th July 1933, from the Inspector-General of Prisons in Mysore, proposing the supply of additional clothing to the said convicts.

ORDER NO. G. 1383-5—PRIS. 1-33-2, DATED BANGALORE, THE 29TH AUGUST 1933.

At the Session of the Legislative Council in June 1933, the inadequacy of the clothing supplied to the convicts confined in the Jails in the State and the necessity for an increased supply were brought to notice and Government promised to have the matter examined.

2. The Inspector-General of Prisons has now submitted a report in the matter and he proposes that in modification of the existing rules, the following scale of clothing be adopted:—

To male convicts:—

- (1) Two jackets made of stout khadi cloth.
- (2) Two pairs of trousers made of stout khadi cloth reaching just one inch below the knee.
- (3) A cap.
- (4) Two langoties.
- (5) A towel 36 inches square.

To female convicts:—

- (1) Two cloths each 6 yards by 42 inches made of 20's single.
- (2) Two ravikeys.

The Inspector-General also proposes that the supply of clothes to all convicts be made once in nine months instead of once in ten months as at present.

Government are pleased to sanction these proposals:

The extra cost, which is estimated at Rs. 2,000 per year, will be met out of the provision in the budget under clothing and bedding of prisoners.

Necessary action to amend the Mysore Jail Manual in this respect shall be taken by the Inspector-General of Prisons.

R. RANGA RAO,
Chief Secretary to Government.
